ANCIENT DOCUMENT

Paper Relating to Ground on Which Maysville Now Stands

A correspondent at Washington, in looking over old manuscripts, found a letter written by Moses Daulton, dated Maysville, Ky., January 1st, 1816.

It was addressed to "Simon Kenton, Esq., and was upon the subject of the land upon which this city stands—"five acres above Limestone and five acres below that creek,"—the title to which, it seems, was in some doubt, and which Daulton was trying to have righted, the ownership being in Kenton.

The original deed was said to be on record in the office of Marshall Wey, and that Attorney Paxton's opinion might be secured concerning it.
The money terms employed were pounds, shillings and pence; and it stated that Arthur Fox, as Trustee for the town of Maysville, had paid £7 toward the purchase.

May—no doubt the individual from whom our city gets its name—is mentioned as having brought a suit in this connection.

Daulton offers Kenton so much money to furnish him a legal title to the land, and to Mrs. Kenton he will give a dress in consideration of her relinquishment of dower thereto.

The Paxton mentioned was the father of Mr.
William M. Paxton of Missouri, then one of the foremost Attorneys of the state, and grandfather of Judge James P. Harbeson.

Moses Daulton was no doubt the progenitor of Messrs. Mosee and Henry Daulton, the living men.

The letter is drawn up in a fine business hand, upon the old style of paper, without lines, and the language used is that of a business man and scholar.

River
News

The gage marks 8.4 and falling.

The Tacoma passed up last night for Pomeroy.

The Queen City is due up tonight for Pittsburgh.

The Delta arrived in Cincinnati Thursday with a coal diggers and other harbor utensils.

Heavy rains are reported to have fallen in the up-river districts in addition to those reported Wednesday.

Under quarantine regulations at Cairo passengers from Paducah are not allowed to get off there without proper health certificates.

The packet Cando, which has been plying in the up-river trade, passed down Thursday for Madison, Ind. She will engage in the Monterey, Ky., and Madison, Ind., trade.

More people have traveled on the rivers for pleasure this summer than ever before in the history of American river navigation. More people used the rivers in old days, of course, but then it was not for pleasure altogether, as many travelers then had no way to make their trips except by river.

The Cincinnati office of the Pittsburgh Coal Combine yesterday received a dispatch from Paducah, stating that the towboat Joe B.
Williams struck a log at that point Thursday and sank. The water is six feet over her boiler deck. The hole is forty feet long and the damage will reach $10,000.

Nothing on the Market Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This fact is well known to Druggists everywhere, and nine out of ten will give their customers this preparation when the best is asked for. Mr. Obe Wintner, a prominent Druggist of Joplin, Mo., in a circular to his customers, says:
"There is nothing on the market in the way of patent medicine which equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. We sell and recommend this preparation." For sale by all Druggists.

Storage room at L. T. Gaebke & Co's.

Colonel Sam B. Ellis has the hungry Newspaperman's thanks for a fine lot of fine tomatoes of the "Pondorosa" breed. Now, if that isn't enough to paralyze one's appetite, there's no use in big names for big things.
